From the King James Bible and John Bunyan

North Pass Press

The grass withereth,

the flower fadeth:

but the word of our God

shall stand for ever.

If God be for us, who can be against us?

What time I am afraid,

I will trust in thee.

The Kingdom's thine,

the power too,

We thee adore;

The glory also

shall be thine,

for evermore.

Man's like a candle

in a candlestick,

Made up of tallow,

and a little wick;

And as the candle is

when 'tis not lighted,

So is he who is in his sins benighted.

Nor can a man his soul

with grace inspire,

More than can candles

set themselves on fire.
